

I do not want the "no-call list compromised in any way by any telemarketers. My meal and evening times are finally peaceful without their constant interruptions. I would like to see the political parties added into the restrictions as well.